

THE AUTHORS' PROFILES

Yinika L. Perston

Yinika Perston is a postdoctoral candidate at Griffith University, in the city of Brisbane, Australia. Specialising in the analysis of stone artefacts, Perston's work includes analysis of stone artefact assemblages from Flores and South Sulawesi, the Kimberley region of Western Australia, and numerous eastern Australian sites throughout New South Wales and Queensland. Her current research focusses on the lithics of South Sulawesi dating to the Mid Holocene or 'Toalean' and the Late Pleistocene, which she is investigating as part of her PhD project.

Anas Anwar Nasirin

Anas Anwar Nasirin was born in Tasikmalaya on April 25, 1997. He attended Panti Asuhan Al-Rasyid of Subang and Pondok Pesantren Yatim Piatu dan Dhufa Darul Inayah of West Bandung. Having finished his bachelor degree majoring history, Anas worked at Pondok Pesantren Yatim Piatu dan Dhuafa Darul Inayah for a year. He is interested in history, politics, motivation and migrant workers in Indonesia. The following is a list of studies on Anas' part: Professional Effort to Improve the Quality of Indonesia Migrant Workers in Industrial Revolution 4.0 and Wheel of Hope as Media Creates Hope Become Reality and Become Realizing Dreams: A Case study at Darul Inayah Cisarua Orphanage Bandung Regency. Anas was a presenter at History Week of 2018 BKMS of Gadjah Mada University with a paper entitled Bojongmenje Temple as an Indication of the Collapse of Tarumanegara and The Rise of Sundanese Kingdoms In West Java (seventh-tenth centuries)". He won The National Inspiring Stories Competition at Exist Fair 2017 UKM Penalaran & Riset Exist Universitas Jambi, through a work entitled Confidence Overcomes All Obstacles. At The National Inspiring Stories Competition at Temu Ilmiah Mahasiswa Bidikmisi Nasional FORMADIKSI Universitas Mataram 2017, Anas came third; he gained a second place at an event called Debat Nasional Pekan Prestasi Mahasiswa Bidikmisi KABIM UNPAD 2017. To add to his blistering achievement, Anas was a facilitator on the program An Introduction to the Department of History at Padjajaran University, entitled High-Achiever Students for two straight years (2017/2018). He also held a number of seminars at some orphanage houses across Bandung in the same span of time. He co-authored a book entitled Indonesia in Historical Events of 2016.

Moh Rosyid

Moh Rosyidi is a lecturer at Institut Agama Islam Negeri (IAIN) of Kudus Regency of Central Java. He holds a doctoral degree in Islamic studies from Universitas Islam Negeri (UIN) Walisongo, Semarang of Central Java and a master from the Department of History of Diponegoro University in Central Java.

Muhammad Fadhlan Syuaib Intan

Muhammad Fadhlan Syuaib Intan was born in Makassar, on November 21, 1958. He attended Hasanuddin University majoring Geology of Faculty of Engineering, graduating in 1985. He started his career by being part of the Research Center of National Archeology in 1988, being a researcher of functional rank from 1994 until recently. Actively involved in geoarcheology for a long while now, some of his works include The Geology of Manapo Ujung Tanjung II Site, Muaro Jambi Regency, Jambi (Jurnal Tumotowa, Vol. 3, No. 1, Juni 2020); The Coastline of Batujaya in the fifth century, West Java (Jurnal Papua, Vol. 12, No. 1, Juni 2020); The Geology of Gua Mardua Site, Kutai Timur Regency, East Kalimantan (Jurnal Siddhayatra, Vol. 25, No. 2, November 2020); The Geoarcheological Exploration on Sangihe Island: One of the Nearest Island of North Sulawesi (EHPA, 2019, Published in November, 2020).

Abednego Andhana Prakosajaya

Abednego Andhana Prakosajaya was born in Malang on November 29, 1999. He is currently a member of undergraduate program majoring in Archaeology at Faculty of Cultural Science at Gadjah Mada University and History at the Faculty of Letters in Sanata Dharma University. The writer is currently working on his thesis entitled The Effects of Conflict on Production and Social Interaction Outcomes in Plantation Communities: A Case Study of Ajinantra Plantation, 1961-1970 at the Sanata Dharma undergraduate program. The author also managed to win a gold medal in the 33rd PIMNAS competition held by the Ministry of Education and Culture through a research entitled Tracking the Diaspora in Indonesia: Life adaptation Strategy of the New Caledonian Diaspora at Lampung in preserving the National Cultural Hibridity. Other publications of the writer include: Structure Comparisson of Melayu Kuno Inscription from Kedatuan Sriwijaya and Mataram Kuno Kingdom in the 7th-8th Century AD published in Siddhayatra: Jurnal Arkeologi Vol. 26 (1), 2021; Pesanggrahan Ngeksigondo: Development Analysis of the Architecture and Spatial Layout of Kasultanan Yogyakarta's Pasanggrahan as a Garden in the 20th Century AD published in Jurnal Romantika Arkeologia. Vol. 2 (2), 2020; and The Location Selection of Gunungsari Sugar Factory by Handelsvereeniging Amsterdam (HVA): Spatial Analysis on One of the "Sister Factory" of Jatiroto Sugar Factory published in Kindai Etam Vol. 6 (2), 2020.

Bernadeta Apriastuti Wardaninggar

Born in Salatiga of Central Java, Bernadeta completed her primary school, junior high school and senior high school in Tana Toraja. She attended Universitas Hasanuddin for her bachelor degree majoring archaeology, graduating in 1992. Her thesis entitled The Traditional Settlement Patterns of Torajan People as Social, Cultural and Environmental Adaptation helped her to attain a master degree in her respective major at the same alma mater in 2014. Appointed a civil servant (PNS) at the Balai Arkeologi Sulawesi Selatan in 1994, Bernadeta has been a consistent researcher focusing on prehistoric period at what is now called the Archeological Center of South, West and Southeast Sulawesi. Throughout her time there, she has published a number of academic studies, consisting of: The Shapes of Coffins for burial in the Faith of Mamasa Community of West Sulawesi (published in Jurnal Walennae, 2009); The Megalithic Traditions in the Sacred and Profane Context at Lawo site of Soppeng (Jurnal Walennae 2010); The Burial System in Caves and Niches in North Kolaka of Southeast Sulawesi (Jurnal Walennae, 2010); The Human Activities in Caves in Muna of Southeast Sulawesi Based on Southeast Images Data (Jurnal Walennae, 2011); Ancient Settlement Indications in Luwu Regency, South Sulawesi (Jurnal Walennae, 2020). Bernadeta was also the secretary of the board of editors of Journal Walennae until 2012.